ADJUDICATOR

GEORGIA JAMIESON EMMS, MMus (Performance Voice)

Georgia is a singer, translator, diction coach, librettist, the founder and director of Wanderlust Opera, and has taught singing for almost two decades. She studied at Victoria University, Wellington, and is a former member of the New Zealand Youth Choir and the New Zealand Opera Chorus. Georgia sang professionally for several years in Hamburg, Germany. Her operatic, oratorio and musical theatre roles at home and overseas include the Countess (The Marriage of Figaro), Norina (Don Pasquale), Fiordiligi (Così fan tutte), Hanna Glawari (The Merry Widow), Maria (West Side Story), The Queen of the Night (The Magic Flute), Bach St. John Passion, Rossini's Petite Messe Solennelle and Mozart's Requiem and Mass in C Minor. She was the Artist Teacher specialising in Diction & Languages at the NZ School of Music for six years, and directed and translated their 2021 opera Orpheus In The Underworld. Georgia's first original opera, The Strangest of Angels, with music by Kenneth Young, will be premiered by NZ Opera in 2022. She will also be performing in NZ Opera's highly anticipated Unruly Tourists.
